1.

2. The important government organs formerly in Haeju City had been moved to Okgye-ri (YC-375140) on the northern outskirts of Haeju and to Yongha-ri (YC-363145) on the northwest outskirts of Haeju. Most of the civilian population was dispersed in the valleys surrounding Haeju.
3. Most of the wealthy original inhabitants of Haeju moved to South Korea earlier in the war. In mid-April the entire population of the city was extremely poor, with the exception of the Communist leaders.
